BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION

David B. LaFrance
Chief Executive Officer
American Water Works Association

David B. LaFrance is Chief Executive Officer of the American Water Works Association, the world's largest and oldest association of water professionals, with 43 sections throughout North America and more than 50,000 members worldwide. Overseeing a staff of more than 150 in Denver, Washington D.C. and Mumbai, India, LaFrance guides AWWA's extensive scientific, educational, and public policy work to build a better world through better water.

Prior to joining AWWA in 2010, he was the Chief Financial Officer for Denver Water where, during his 17-year tenure, he also served as the utility's Manager of Rate Administration. LaFrance's professional background also includes extensive water policy and management experience with the global engineering and consulting firm CH2M and the US Army Corps of Engineers.
